Dix's plurality 66,675 Stimson's up-state plurality 36,696 Legislature won by the Democrats.

Democrats win seven Congressmen.

Successor to United States Senator Depew will be a Democrat. Herbert Parsons and Congressman Cocks, friends of Roosevelt, defeated. Sereno Payne re-elected.

New York,-John A. Dix has been elected governor of New York state. and on January 1, for the first time since 1893, a Democrat will be at the head of the state government.

Manhattan and the Bronx complete give Dix 165,229, Stimson 96,951, Hopper 20,661. Thus New York city, with but a few election districts missing, gives Dix 300,078, Stimson 194,707, Hopper 39, With the election of Mr. Dix and all of his associates on the state ticket and the legislature closer than it has been in years, if it is not Democratic on joint ballot, Theodore Roosevelt met the most crushing defeat of his political career. As has been stated throughout these dispatches throughout the compaign. the fight was against former President Roosevelt.

It was a landslide all over New York state, as it appears to have been elect 24 new members. Assuming the in every other direction and in all lo- party will retain its representation in calities. At night the main thorough fares of Gotham were alive with peo- the Democrats have 13 members in ple, bands and a tremendous crowd, so joyous and wild in their hilarity that the like was never seen.

New York Went Wild. It was a hysterical, yelling, fierce crowd-glad, it appeared, that it was Massachusetts, 2; Maryland, 2; Conall over and that Roosevelt was sent to the rear. It was a wild night in tucky, 1; Missouri, 1; West Virginia, New York.

William Barnes, jr., leader of the old guard, which went down to defeat | vania, 1. at the Saratoga convention, called attention to the fact that it was the counties which supported Roosevelt in the convention which did not support him at the polls.

To complete the defeat and humiliation of Col. Roosevelt his home district went Democratic. Mr. Dix received a plurality of 60 over his opponent. Two years ago President Taft carried the district by 288. This defeat for his candidate, practically in his own dooryard, was entirely unexpected by Col. Hoosevelt, and when

The state senators and assemblymen are also Democratic, these candidates running well up with the heads of the ticket.

The Dix plurality will go down as one of the largest in the history of back for Reservelt. Tammany Hall, being second only to that given Byrd S, Coler in 1902. The plurality that year was $6,000. In 1906 the plurality was 63,136 in New York county, and two years ago the Fourteenth street organization received a plurality of 49,595 for Mr. Chanler.

Rebuked "New Nationalism." The Tammany Hall leaders gave gredit for their wonderful victory in part to the anti-Roosevelt movement, which, they said, was in evidence everywhere.

Lloyd C. Griscom had great hopes following the demonstration given Roosevelt on his last tour. The Republican camp was aroused by the false hope that the great outpouring Democrats Make Great Gains in meant votes.

"I always conceded New York county to Dix, but I am unable as yet to estimate his plurality," said Mr. Griscom, when the early returns began to rudely dash aside his hopes.

Mr. Griscom's home district, the Twenty-ninth, made one of the worst showings in Manhattan.

Republicans Revolt. The Ropublican revolt in those two strongholds, including the sections along Central Park on the East Side, amounted almost to a political revolution. The vote in the Twenty-seventh was 2,787 for Stimson and 4,019 for Dix. Mr. Hughes received 5,239 votes two years ago and Mr. Chanler 4,135

It was from Buffalo that the first flash came which indicated the Dix victory. The returns came in before 7 o'clock, due to the fact that voting machines are used. Neighbors True to Dix.

Essex county, near the home of Mr. Dix, showed one of the largest Democratic gains. It gave the Republican candidate a plurality of 700, a loss of more than 2,000 compared with two years ago.

The Republicans of Albany repudi ated the humiliation heaped upon Mr Barnes at Saratoga, and gave the Roosevelt candidate a plurality of 1,000, but considerable more to the rest of the state ticket, and elected the entire Republican county ticket.

At the Roosevelt Home.

Oyster Bay .- Mr. Roosevelt traveled into Oyster Bay and cast the Sagamore Hill vote. Kermit Roosevelt had come from Harvard to east his first vote, and the youth had voted proudly and gayly. From that time there was little from Sagamore Hill.

"Win or lose," Mr. Roosevelt had ald when on his way to the place, "I shall keep up the fight for progressive Republicanism. I may campaign. There are other battles yet to fight."

No word came from Mr. Roosevelt after he had learned that the battle had been a rout.

After dinner a light glowed faintly in the library, where Mr. Roosevell was suffering alone. The gates at Sagamore Hill remained locked.

"Father has nothing to say," he an nounced. "Father says he will have nothing to say. He has learned al there is to learn. He knows that Mr Dix has been elected and that Mas sachusetts, New Jersey and many oth er states too numerous to mention have gone Democratic."

Then the lights went out and the telephone and telegraph wires were shut off,

PRESIDENT TAFT VOTED IN CINCINNATI.

President Taft arrived in Cincinnati Tuesday morning and cast his vote in Precinct H of the Second ward at 11:25. The president left on the 3 o'clock Pennsylvania train for Washington.

Returns from the election fraught with interest most unusual for an "off year" caught the president on the wing. The president traveled all throu election night.

Arrangement were made in the telegraphic division at the white house to furnish the president promptly with all the news available in Washington. Special wires were looped into the telegraph room at the executive offices and concise bulletins were prepared and forwarded from there to the president's train.
